

The Blind Leading the Blind

Warbands must guide one of their players through an obstacle course via verbal instruction. Player is blindfolded. Course is made up of ropes (toxic giant spider webs), bottomless pits, and spring loaded arrow/dagger throwers.

Touch a web and you die. Fall in a pit and you die. Step on one of the spring loaded traps (which fires arrow or dagger) and you die.

Players will cycle through from the warband until either the course is complete or all members dead!

Ropes, pits and traps will change each time.
