

Airboat

This spell generates a solid platform of cloud and mist, shaped as a small boat. The details regarding the appearance and look of the boat are up to the caster, but they are never that distinct in any event. The boat is large enough to carry the caster and three other people, along with whatever cargo the caster wishes to move, and is capable of flying through the air at a constant velocity.

The spell ends immediately if the cargo capacity of the Airboat is exceeded.
