

Pia, Street Rat and Interplanetary Stowaway

Born to a life of desperate poverty on the streets of the metropolis-world, Phoebe, Pia's early life was spent scraping together a living by scavenging, a little light pick-pocketing, and - as she grew older - trading in black-market oddments and trinkets brought in by sailors docking in the spaceport. At 14, she happened to pick the wrong pocket and - in her flight from the all-seeing eyes of the security cameras that dominated her world and would now be able to identify her wherever she went in Phoebe - took refuge in the hull of a passing merchant ship. By and by, the ship flew to Docharin, its stow-away passenger undiscovered. Pia has since had many adventures in the Empire Worlds and beyond - and she'll tell of them, given half a chance.
