

Ariel Jane Rommer, XXXXXXX (Classified)

Ariel Rommer was born on the small agricultural planet of Galatea. Despite repeating a year during her early schooling, Ariel was accepted into the Space Corp Officer Training Program at 17 and left Galatea for Phoebe, which remains her home base to this day.

Passing her exams with honours, Ariel's stellar rise through Space Corp ranks has gained her a certain notoriety. She is currently part of the top secret 'Project U'. Little is known about The Project, however it is rumoured that members have undergone genetic enhancement. Details remain scarce.

As expected, Ariel is proficient with entire armory of the Space Corp. She is extremely flexible, a deadly shot, and master in the art of hand to hand combat - once killing an armed (and extremely annoyed) Thromulan with nothing but her thighs.

A sensualist at heart, Ariel delights in trying new dishes to satiate her wide range of appetites. She remains particularly fond of a preserve fish dish that is considered a delicacy on her home planet (although, thankfully, it has not achieved popularity elsewhere).
