Quotes

The Bronto is a family dinosaur, compared to the sports Tyrannosaurus. Also it's the green solution being a hybrid.

- The plan is to take the slave "in to heaven" and have him descend to lead the people (on a parachute) with the blessings of the Gods (possibly some tech)
- The group and Victor make their way to the pterodactyl camp
- Victor leaps onto a pterodactyl and Ravi almost manages to do it neatly
- Four Nazis, also having the idea of using their semi-trained flying lizards to flee the plateau, and open fire with two machine guns.
- White shoots one, and Ravi leads the flock of lizards following his large leader type lizard to swoop at the remainder, carrying the other machine gun nazi into the air before dropping him.
- The flock is taken to where the Lieutenant and Finnegan have been converting the zeppelin into a glider. The Queen and her slave are waiting there as well.
- The various pterodactyls are harnessed to the glider and it takes off with everyone on board.
- Gaining height above the clouds, the pterodactyls are released and the group glides down
